Section A

Private Motor Excess Insurance

The Insurance works alongside your existing car insurance. It covers the cost of your excess if you have to make an 'at fault' claim where the damage to your vehicle is greater than your excess limit.

Should you need to make a claim on your car insurance, you pay your excess as normal and then claim it back.

Section B

Car Rental Loss Damage Waiver Insurance

If there is damage to the rental vehicle, this insurance provides two main benefits:

1. The ability to recover your rental vehicle excess that you as the renter are responsible for, meaning you can decide to decline to purchase insurance that reduces your excess, which some rental companies may offer.

In the event of an accident you pay the rental vehicle excess and this insurance will allow you to claim it back.

2. Where no insurance is included in the rental agreement this policy also provides cover.
